client during what is commonly a time of turmoil and high emotional stress.

Heather understands the importance of family. She is a wife and a mother and faces the daily challenges of raising a family. Her life knowledge provides her with compassion and empathy for individuals who are struggling with the breakdown of their own family and knows the significance of providing a supportive environment to help each client through the difficult family law process. Heather has worked hard to obtain custody awards for parents whose sole goal is to protect their children, protected battered spouses from further domestic violence, and placed children with guardians and adoptive parents who provide love and care for children other than their own.

In addition to providing high-quality personalized legal representation in family law matters, The Law Office of Heather Cullen also utilizes a sophisticated computerized case management system to ensure continuous client communication and effective tracking of documents. Attorney Heather Cullen has created a legal practice that incorporates current technology and provides her clients with instant legal support regardless of physical location. Whether living locally, relocated to a different state or deployed in a foreign country, Attorney Heather Cullen provides seamless individual communication and legal guidance to each of her clients.

Heather M. Cullen is profiled as one of our outstanding women of the Inland Empire because of her dedication to client care as well as her advanced application of family law. Heather is the Senior Attorney at The Law Office of Heather Cullen which is located within walking distance of the Riverside Family Law Courthouse in downtown Riverside, California. She is a Native Southern Californian who earned her Juris Doctor Degree from the University of California at Davis after graduating Cum Laude with Bachelor's Degrees in both Philosophy and Law from the University of California, Riverside.

Heather has practiced in the Riverside and San Bernardino family law courts for over 15 years. She has established a law firm that puts clients first and applies cutting edge technology to provide effective and reliable legal representation. The Law Office of Heather Cullen utilizes the services of a skilled legal team consisting of attorneys, paralegals, and researchers who provide legal protection for each client. She understands that family law matters have deeply personal and life-long implications for every individual associated with them. The Cullen legal team works together to advocate for each
