Valerie L. Murphy is certified as a specialist in family law by the State Bar of California Board of Legal Specialization and is a Senior Attorney at the family law firm of Cullen & Murphy.

Attorney Murphy is one of the Inland Empire’s Top Lawyers because of her commitment to her clients and her advanced knowledge in the area of family law. She is a native Southern Californian who joined the legal team of Cullen & Murphy as an attorney in early 2008. Attorney Murphy’s legal focus is family law and all of the matters that fall under the large umbrella of family law, including divorce, termination of domestic partnerships, custody and visitation, establishment of parental relationships (paternity), domestic violence, division of community property, child support and spousal support.

Attorney Murphy has over 25 years of experience in family law. She started her legal career as a legal assistant in 1993 before becoming an attorney in 2005. Her legal career has continuously focused on matters involving family law, and she takes great care in providing for clients’ legal and emotional needs. Attorney Murphy has extensive legal experience that has been obtained in the private sector with private law firms located in the Riverside area as well as the public sector with the Riverside County Department of Child Support Services.

Attorney Murphy earned her Juris Doctor Degree from California Southern Law School, where she graduated in the top 1% of her class. She also completed her bachelor’s degree in the area of Political Science at California State University, San Bernardino. Following her excellence as a student and graduate of California Southern Law School, the law school invited her to teach and she is now a professor of community property at California Southern Law School.

Attorney Murphy stands out among family law attorneys because of her extensive experience and personal knowledge with issues regarding the United States Military and Family Law. Her legal experience includes issues relating to divorce, child and spousal support, the Soldier and Sailors Relief Act, as well as application of Federal regulations in family law matters. Valerie has represented many service members and their families who are located locally and internationally and guided them through the family law system. Attorney Murphy has advocated for her clients through difficult dissolutions and other family law matters where her efforts have been entirely focused on obtaining the best possible outcome for her clients, while protecting their children and families.
